

What Are Accounts?

- Accounts are the financial records of a business
- They are usually consist of:

What are Accounts?

- The information that goes into the accounts is gathered from the following documents:

Who Uses The Accounts?

- The type of finance a business will use often depends upon how long they need the money for:

